

ENAR Weekly Mail 91 27 April 2007

NEWS FROM ENAR

- ENAR approves its strategic plan 2007-2010

From 20 to 22 April, members of the European Network Against Racism (ENAR) gathered in Berlin for their Strategic Congress under the motto ‘Driving the future of the European anti-racist movement’, to decide on the strategic goals and objectives of the network for the next three years. ENAR has agreed on four key objectives to be achieved in the next three years: combating discrimination, promoting equality and redressing disadvantage; promoting the development of progressive migration and integration policies; increasing recognition of anti-racism in equality and fundamental rights; and enhancing the capacity of the network to deliver its strategy. Read more

- Latest ENARgy is out!

The April edition of the ENARgy newsletter has been published under the theme “Driving the future of the European anti-racist movement”. It focuses on the challenges ahead in the field of anti-racism and the ‘hot’ issues for the future, in the context of ENAR’s Strategic Congress held from 20 to 22 April to decide on the strategic objectives of the network for 2007-2010. Read more

- Jewish and Muslim organisations unite to create European platform for co-operation

What is the role of the Middle East conflict in Jewish-Muslim dialogue? Is the media a positive force for change in inter-religious relations? How can local communities be successfully engaged in dialogue? These were a number of the questions tackled by representatives of Jewish and Muslim organisations at a Conference on Jewish-Muslim Dialogue held in Brussels last week and organised by CEJI with guidance from a Jewish-Muslim Steering Group. A key outcome of the conference was the establishment of a European Platform for Jewish-Muslim Co-operation to both encourage and to raise the profile of local, national and Europe-wide dialogue and co-operation initiatives. The conference was conceived with a view to promoting dialogue, exchange of best practice, co-operation and partnership between Jewish and Muslim communities in Europe. Bashy Quraishy, ENAR participated in this event. Read more

- CLAE exhibition “Retour de Babel”

The exhibition ‘Retour de Babel’ was officially launched on 27 April in Dudelange, Luxembourg. This project is part of “Luxembourg, European capital of culture 2007”