ISLAM: EU PLATFORM FOR JEWISH-MUSLIM COOPERATION LAUNCHED

(ANSAMed) - BRUSSELS, NOVEMBER 28 - The new platform for dialogue between Jewish and Muslims, aimed at promoting the ongoing initiatives of cooperation at a local level, was launched yesterday at the European Parliament. Financed by the European Commission and by different European foundations, the project - conceived by CEJI, the Jewish organisation which works so that Europe can be a place which receives all the religions, and where an open comparison between the different faiths is possible - was presented in Brussels. Many associations of Jewish and Muslims from Denmark, the United Kingdom, Belgium, France and the Netherlands, already operating on the front of spreading of dialogue and cooperation between communities, will be part of the platform. The idea is to support and promote the local realities which often work unnoticed. (ANSAMed).
