Progress on European Platform for Jewish - Muslim cooperation

02.09.2007

PROGRESS ON EUROPEAN PLATFORM FOR JEWISH-MUSLIM CO-OPERATION

The first meeting of the Steering Committee of the European Platform for Jewish-Muslim Co-operation was held on 12 July in Brussels. It marked an important milestone in the creation of this international platform promoting dialogue, co-operation and partnership between Jewish and Muslim communities in Europe. The Platform will be officially launched at an event to be held at the European Parliament in autumn 2007. This event will also see the circulation of reports mapping Jewish-Muslim dialogue initiatives in five European countries revised since their launch at the European Conference on Jewish-Muslim Dialogue earlier this year.

The European Platform for Jewish-Muslim Co-operation was established in April 2007. It is facilitated by CEJI – A Jewish Contribution to an Inclusive Europe, with guidance from a Steering Group comprising representatives of Jewish and Muslim organisations from each of the six European countries involved. In due course, it is hoped that the Platform will be co-facilitated by a Muslim partner organisation.
